FUTURE PICKS

•Batman; Year One is a winner. Big sales prove it. We know there are large quantities out there, but there also were plenty of Wolverine #1, and look what it did.

•The black and whites are fun, but as you look through each week's offerings be selective- This goes for dealers and collectors. Collectors have the advantage of actively pursuing each issue as they become available, but dealers must order sight unseen two months in advance. The advantage has gone to the collector-

•Dark Knight hardback edition is now selling for $30.00. Most who find it are very pleased to do so.

•The Nam is selling at a very rapid rate. Now with its high critical acclaim, it certainly is a must on everyone's list.

•The Watchman mini series, written by Moore, is one of the most steadily selling in recent times. Watch it climb in value.

•The new issue of Wolverine vs. Spiderman, combining Marvels current number one character Wolverine with Marvel's all time number one character, is resulting in a fast selling book. This is noteable at its cover price of $2.50.

•A top choice made by many dealers and collectors alike is the new action series with John Byrne's Superman- It's getting hot and is a great steady seller.

•Yes, Perez did it again. Wonder Woman is selling everywhere- Reports are that the price tag is $2.00 to $2.50 in some areas.

COMICS VALUES MONTHLY

Attic Books, Ltd. P.O. Box 38 South Salem, New York 10590

Dear Comics Values Monthly Collector,

Aircel, the publisher from Canada, has been the talk of the industry during 1986. It has been touted by many as the most promising young publisher of the many to recently come on the scene. Good reviews and strong collector support have pushed this new Gloucester, Ontario based publisher to the heights. Now titles have grown to five in number, including two in color. The early Aircel numbers have been among the highest rising comics this year.

Barry Blair has been the artistic force behind this successful company. Many fans know all this, but the Canadians have been mute on some important information. This has now come to light from various sources throughout Canada. Barry Blair has produced many pre-Aircel publications during the early 1980's.

The first and most significant publication is a run of Elflord, virtually unknown outside Canada. Fifteen different pre-Aircel Elflords were published. The first five were magazine size, with a black and white cover and stapled binding. A reported print run of under two thousand of each number was printed. The next three, 6, 7, and 8, were as above, but three ring binder bound. It was reported that these had a press run of under five hundred. Numbers 9 to 15 were color laminated fold around covers, staple bound in a comic like format of eight inches high by seven and a fourth inches wide. Values go up drastically from the center of Ottawa and outward like ever widening concentric circles. This is concentrated all in Canada, however. In Ottawa, Elflord pre-Aircel series now sell as follows: #1, $200.00, #2, $150.00, #3, $100.00, #4, $75.00, #5, $75.00, and no numbers 6-8 have recently been offered. Various issues from 9-15 have been selling for around $50.00.

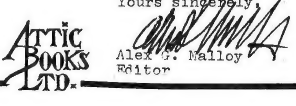
Windblade, a focus on one of Elflord's main characters, was published by Barry in 1983. This was the first appearance of Elflord characters. This book is going for $75.00 in Ottawa and up to $150.00 in other parts of Canada.

Blair's first work was in a production printed in 1982 with a print run of under two thousand, but most were destroyed. The title was From the Void and Barry had two black and white stories within. One was from a titled Dragonring excerpt. Nobody in the recent past has seen any of these, even in Ottawa.

Dragonring pre-Aircel #1 by Blair was published in a black and white, eight by seven and a fourth inch format. The characters have now been changed by Guang Yap's rendering of Aircel's Dragonring. This title is selling in Ottawa for $100.00.

Also reportedly true, there may be five early issues of Samurai by Blair which also date from before the Aircel issues. All this information, along with listings and values, will be evaluated for the next issue of CVM.

Yours sincerely,



Alex J. Malloy

SUNDAY COMIC PAGES

Sunday comic pages have long been a collectable in the comics sphere. Only recently has full potential of their value been realized. Age is a prime factor, together with the title and the artist, when evaluating Sunday comics. The values represented below indicate Sunday comics in attractive readable condition. Trimmed down, stained, torn, or pages in generally poorer condition will bring a lower value. Superb quality pages will demand a higher value. The most sought after titles are the strips executed by the creator, the original artist thereof.

Tabloid pages will tend to bring a slightly lower value overall. A collector can expect to find pages in various formats such as one-third pages, half pages, and full pages. These varieties also appear in the tabloids mentioned above.

Special thanks is extended to Neil Hansen for his special research in preparation of this feature.
